The U.S. Department of State's Miami Passport Agency is hosting Passport Day in the USA, a special event on Saturday, March 9, 2013 from 9:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. to accept passport applications and to provide passport information to U.S. citizens.

On this day only, no appointments are needed for applicants at the Miami Passport Agency. You may apply for a passport for routine or expedited service. Hundreds of local acceptance facilities around the country are joining the Department of State in celebrating Passport Day in the USA 2013, a national passport acceptance and outreach event.

U.S. citizens must present a valid passport book when entering the United States by air. U.S. citizens entering the United States from Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean and Bermuda at land borders and sea ports of entry must present a passport book, passport card, or other travel documents approved by the U.S. government.

More information on Passport Day in the USA and how to apply for a U.S. passport is available at travel.state.gov. U.S. citizens may also obtain passport information by phone, in English and Spanish, by calling the National Passport Information Center toll-free at 1-877-487-2778.
